Introduction

The North American Fetal Therapy Network (NAFTNet) is a voluntary association of 57 medical centers across the United States, Canada, Mexico, Europe, and South America, dedicated to advancing in-utero fetal therapeutic procedures. Our multidisciplinary teams include specialists in maternal-fetal medicine, pediatric surgery, neonatology, pediatric cardiology, fetal imaging, and more, working in both academic and community settings to foster collaboration and research in fetal therapy.

We invite you to join us as an exhibitor or sponsor at the 2026 NAFTNet Fall Meeting in Chicago. This is your opportunity to engage directly with leaders in fetal therapy, highlight your products and services, and support the advancement of maternal-fetal care.

NAFTNet's Mission

The Primary Mission of the North American Fetal Therapy Network (NAFTNet):

- To provide a cooperative clinical research network to study the natural history of fetal disease
- To develop therapeutic prenatal interventions to improve outcomes

The Secondary Mission of North American Fetal Therapy Network (NAFTNet):

- To function as an educational resource for patients and healthcare providers
- To train future leaders in clinical and basic science research in the field of fetal intervention

How the Sponsorship Benefits You

Sponsoring a NAFTNet event offers a powerful opportunity to elevate your company's presence while contributing to meaningful progress in maternal-fetal medicine. Your brand will receive unmatched visibility throughout the event, ensuring strong and lasting recognition among attendees. You'll also gain direct access to an engaged audience of leaders and innovators who are shaping the future of fetal therapy, creating valuable relationship-building opportunities. Most importantly, your support helps advance the field and contributes to NAFTNet's mission—positioning your organization as a committed partner in improving outcomes for mothers and babies.

Increased Brand Exposure

The audience includes both academic and community-based practitioners, ensuring broad reach for your brand.

Enhanced Customer Engagement

Attendees represent 57 leading fetal therapy centers in the US, Canada, Mexico, Europe, and South America

Networking and Business Growth Opportunities

Most attendees are decision-makers or key influencers in clinical practice, research, and hospital purchasing.
